

Creation of youth exchanges on sustainability, applying theatre and music as a tool

From 24th to 30th October 2019

WHERE?

In Valdepiélagos Ecohousing, Madrid (Spain).

This eco-housing project hosts individuals and associations who work with theatre to share values, music for integral development of human beings, yoga, meditation, eco-sustainability and permaculture.

They practice non-violent communication as a tool to prevent and resolve conflicts. The inhabitants share practices on simple lifestyle to offer solutions to the ecological crisis, like the bioclimatic structure of the houses.

WHO CAN APPLY?

We are looking for 24 people of all ages, preferably who aim to become (or already are) youth workers, and who are interested to apply in February 2020 with their own Youth Exchange using theatre and music as a tool to share sustainable values.

From Spain, Italy, Slovenia, Denmark, Greece, Portugal, Serbia, Finland, Ukraine and Netherlands

People who live in rural areas or with low economical resources will have priority in the selection.

PROGRAM?

The main focus will be on how to implement Youth Exchanges in ecovillages and rural projects using theatre and music as a tool to share values. We will train the participants on:

1. How to write and submit a youth exchange application
2. How to read and use easily the Erasmus+ guide
3. How to reach partners for their youth exchange
4. Step by step from the initial idea to the final evaluation
5. How to identify common ground and common goals to offer an intercultural experience to young people on ecological values and mutual respect
6. Why and how use theatre and music as a tool
7. Good practices in youth exchange implementation.

The networking aspect is very important during the training. All the participants will be invited to share ideas about their projects and will start working on the most inspiring ones in small groups to create a plan to be developed in the actual application, with the constant feedback and mentoring of the trainers.

FULLY FUNDED!!

Cost are full funded by the Erasmus + program (travel, vegetarian food, accommodation and training).

Participants are expected to pay the transport in advance.

CERTIFICATION

Participants will get a Youth Pass Official Certification by the European Union.
